Mr. and Mrs. Rosenthal visited in Portland this week.
Meet your friends at the Royal Confectionery.
Harold Ross and Stewart McKie were Portland visitors Sunday.
St. Helens dairy wants your milk and cream orders. Phone 107.
Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Muckie were Portland visitors Saturday.
Don't forget that the St. Helens dairy wants to please you. Phone 107.
Andrew Anderson spent Saturday and Sunday with his family in Houlton.
Royal Candy Kitchen and Confectionery. The best of Hot and Cold Drinks.
Mrs. M. J. Rutherford and Mrs. Ellison spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.
A dance will be given in the city hall Tuesday evening, January 18, by W. Wilkison. Special music.
Miss Madeline Allen returned from Spokane this week, where she spent the holidays with her parents.
Miss Ruby Hamerstrom of Portland, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Morton.
Mrs. Myrtle Ricketson left Wednesday evening for Athens, Ore., for two months' visit with her sister and family.
Follow the crowd and go to the Royal for the best of Candies, Cigars, Tobacco, Fruits, Nuts and Drinks of all kinds.
Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dibble and Mr. and Mrs. Lute Perry of Rainier, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Barnett.
Chas. Rodegab and Edded Ertebut were married Tuesday afternoon. The Mist wishes them a happy and prosperous journey through life.
Prineville certainly believes in equal suffrage as well as a division of offices. At the recent city election Miss Statira Biggs was re-elected city attorney.
Mr. Chas. Muckie and Miss Amy George, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Muckie of Portland, left for Los Angeles Wednesday, where they will spend the rest of the winter.
White & Wilson are doing a good business over at Houlton. They buy most anything produced on the farm and pay cash Johnny on the spot. They also do a commission business.
Misses Ketel and Mallaber and Messrs. Alexander and Haines came up from Goble for a sleigh ride Friday. They spent the evening with August Ketel and returned to Goble in the evening.
Neal Scott and Geo. F. Hickok of Portland, were guests this week in the home of their brother-in-law, Dr. W. R. Dinham. Mr. Scott leaves on Wednesday for Los Angeles for a few months' visit.

Lunch at Mason's.
Fancy Box Candy at Mason's.
Don't compare St. Helens dairy milk and cream without a trial. Phone 107.
Hiram Daniels, who has been sick the past week, is again on deck.
Royal Candy Kitchen for pure, home-made Candies, made in good old St. Helens.
Cramer and Estabrook have opened up a soft drink parlor in the room formerly occupied by the Brian saloon.
T. W. Blew has opened a soft drink place where the Linville saloon was located. He also handles cigars and smokers' sundries.
M. E. Miller and family went over to Vancouver Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. Miller's late sister's husband, Frank Curtis.
Mr. Ames of the firm of Welch & Ames of Kelso, who were formerly in the grocery business here, but now of Kelso, is in St. Helens on business.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright of Los Angeles, spent a couple of days this week as the guests of the family of M. E. Miller. Mrs. Wright is Mr. Miller's mother.
W. J. Fullerton and wife were registered at one of the leading hotels in Portland Wednesday. "Bill" will have some explanations to make when he returns to St. Helens.
Jack McKie met with an accident at the shipyard Monday that night, have resulted seriously. The scaffolding gave way and he fell a distance of about fifteen feet, landing on his shoulder. It was not broken, however, but was badly bruised. It gave him considerable pain, as the shoulder was injured once before.
H. W. Helzenreter of Warren, was a pleasant caller at this office Monday. He informed us that when he first located in Oregon, he was disgusted with the amount of rain that fell each winter, so he returned east and located in Colorado. A big cyclone came along and picked up his neighbor's house and came very near getting him and his family. He immediately returned to Oregon and is perfectly satisfied.

SCAPPOOSE
Dandy lot of fun in the snow.
The Morgan baby is very sick with pneumonia.
Mrs. Crowley is spending a few days in Vancouver.
Mrs. Beavers is not improving. She has a persistent cough.
Frank L. Smith shipped a carload of fat cattle to Portland Tuesday.
Chas. Leonard has returned to Corvallis, where he is attending school.
Mrs. May Getchell and Grandma Dean are both confined to their beds with gripple.
Registration books are now open. Don't forget to register now. Who will be the first.
The big bus is unable to run and Vantassel has been having a terrible time with his milk truck.
School closed down Wednesday on account of sickness of the teachers and pupils and the bad storm.
Mrs. Bessie Stanton, our paralyzed friend, has been suffering untold agony of late, with the gripple.
L. O. Klapp stopped off with friends for a short time, as he was returning to Ilwaco from Portland.
G. Lange, Fred Uhlman, J. B. Duncan, Bert West, G. Morris and Mrs. M. J. Watts attended County Taxpayers' meeting last Saturday.
J. H. Bigham of Yankton, gave his mother, Mrs. Bigham, and brothers and two sisters, a grand surprise by swooping down upon them. Mr. B. had been away 22 years.

Conductor Doffins and family were unable to attend the family gathering Christmas on account of pressing business with the S. P. trains. Mr. Doffins received an annual pass for himself and family from the company. He has worked for them for 15 years without a black mark.
Prof. Purcell took pneumonia on Wednesday. Mr. Fowler has been gripping for over a week. Sometimes he thinks he is very sick and then again he is not so sure, but anyway he is not enjoying it.
Four feet of snow in the mountains and three feet at Pisgah Heights. Mother Lawrence came down Saturday to go to the Heights to care for a sick man, and got stuck in the snow near the Siercks' ranch.

WARREN.
Mr. Dutton was a Portland shopper Saturday.
Most of those who were on the sick list last week have recovered.
Some of our people are having trouble with frozen water pipes these days.
No school Thursday and Friday in Warren on account of the snow storm.
Several from here attended the installation in the Women of Woodcraft lodge in Houlton Tuesday.
The truck men who run between here and Portland, have their trouble—cold weather and bad roads the cause.
Joe Erickson had the misfortune last week of losing his big team of horses with swamp fever. They won first prize at the county fair for being the best matched team.
A number of our young people enjoyed a sleigh ride and attended Grange at Yankton Saturday evening. They report having had a delightful time while there.

Do You Have Back Ache Torpid Liver?
Good health depends upon a good liver. Whenever this important organ fails in its work of separating poisons from the blood, and producing the bile which aids in digestion, ill health, or even death may follow. Bessie Liver Salts aid nature to restore the liver to normal conditions by clearing the intestinal tract of waste matter. Valuable, also, in the treatment of rheumatism and those stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and skin eruptions caused by faulty elimination of the bowels and kidneys. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.
Sold only at Plaza Pharmacy.
